

Parkway North Holiday Arts & Craft Fair 2010

November 6 & 7, 2010

Craft Fair Rules

We thank you for participating in our Fair and ask that you please observe the following rules:

1. All booths must be constructed in a safe manner and must not constitute a hazard. All booths or table fronts must be draped where they are exposed to view, and all packing materials must be out of sight.
2. Booth dealers are responsible for their merchandise in case of loss or damage. All merchandise and personal property must be removed from school premises immediately after closing on Sunday.
3. No resale, garage sale, imported items, flea market, kits, live plants, animals or ready-to-eat food products that are to be consumed on the premises will be allowed. Such items will be removed by the Fair Committee. The Fair Committee reserves the right to remove any item deemed objectionable for any reason.
4. No alcoholic beverages, smoking or pets are allowed anywhere on the premises.
5. Strollers are allowed at the discretion of the Fair Committee.
6. No nails, screws or staples may be put in walls, floors, ceilings or tables.
7. All proceeds from art & craft sales go to the individual dealers. Dealers are responsible for collecting and paying Missouri State sales tax where applicable.
8. Upon acceptance in the 2010 Fair, written notification will be sent with instructions for booth set-up, location and tear down. Booth numbers will be given out on Saturday, Nov. 6, 2010 at set-up.
9. Dealers who close their booth before 4 p.m. on Saturday or Sunday forfeit their right to return the following year.
10. Dealers must park in the designated lot after unloading. Violators may be towed at owners' expense.
